Renaissance Nutrition Consultant

Renaissance Nutrition is growing, now in 30 states nationally. If you are interested in working directly with dairy farmers to make a difference in their animal nutrition, forage quality, and profitability, then we would like to meet you.

When you join Renaissance Nutrition, you join an elite group of highly competent, well-trained agri-professionals. Their dedication, commitment and tireless efforts keep Renaissance in the forefront of dairy and livestock nutrition growing nationwide. Renaissance consultants deliver state-of-the-art technology to dairy and livestock producers. They recommend sound nutrition and management practices; formulate balanced cost-effective rations based on available feeds and forages; deliver high-quality products and services; monitor calves and cows; review production records, etc. We also focus on staying up-to-date on the most recent and relevant university research, using advanced tools and training that can better ensure producers and their livestock are getting the best today and every day. Our people have flexibility for consulting work and also related product sales.

Our goal is to have people that are devoted to quality and advancement; people who are willing to work hard and appreciate the rewards of their efforts. We're a team. We want people with the drive and determination to make things happen today and tomorrow, people with a mission and a future. We have several compensation options depending on your needs and qualifications.
